HUMAN RESOURCES MANAGEMENT

Letter dated 8 September 1997 from the Secretary-General to the Chairman of the Group of 77 and China

I refer to your letter of 28 July 1997 (A/51/955) relating to the implementation of General Assembly resolution 51/226 of 3 April 1997, in particular section III.B, paragraph 26, which provides that "persons on short-term appointments filling regular budget posts or extrabudgetary posts of one year or more cannot apply for or be appointed to their current posts within six months of the end of their current service".

In the light of established practice and in answer to concerns expressed by many delegations, the expression "short-term appointments" is understood to refer to staff appointed for less than one year without issuance of a vacancy announcement and without reference to the Appointment and Promotion Board machinery.

In my letter of 3 May 1997, and after advice from the Legal Counsel, I informed the General Assembly that I intended to exempt staff who were serving on peacekeeping support account posts and International Tribunal posts as of 3 April 1997 from the application of paragraph 26.

The Legal Counsel subsequently advised that, in accordance with staff regulation 12.1 and the jurisprudence of the Administrative Tribunal on acquired rights, a limited exception to paragraph 26 should also be made for staff on appointments of less than one year who had served against any type of post when, as of 3 April 1997, the recruitment process had reached a stage of commitment or one so advanced as to create for the individuals involved an acquired right to the completion of the process.

Several staff members on appointments of less than one year who were not exempted from the application of paragraph 26 were separated at the end of their appointment, as required by section III.B, paragraph 9, of the resolution which severely restricts temporary appointments against regular budget posts or extrabudgetary posts authorized for one year or longer.

The information requested in points (b) through (e) of your letter is provided in the table annexed to the present letter.

I appreciate the commitment of the Group of 77 and China to work with the Secretariat for the greater efficiency and effectiveness of the Organization.

(Signed) Kofi A. ANNAN
Secretary-General
